

Highlands Quad Map

Whiteside Mountain Cliff, portion used for rock climbing and hang gliding, which extends along the uppermost face of the rock below the loop trail to the first continuous tree line below, from the orange painted boundary at the old parking lot at the easternmost point on the loop hiking trail to the orange painted boundary at the western end of the loop hiking trail. This described area is further delineated on the above map. Entry into or upon the area delineated is prohibited as specified in the closure notice.

○ - posted boundary is approx. 3000' x 750'

Scale

